Happy
Holidays

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The holidays are fast approaching and with them are some exciting times for NewPenDel!

First and foremost, we would like to extend a huge, heartfelt "Thank You!" to our outgoing President, Chris Lamuraglia. Chris has tirelessly served the NPD community in many forms over these last several decades. She has worn many hats in our organization. From 1975 to present day, Chris has served in the roles of President, Vice President, Secretary, Bear Facts Editor, Ways & Means Chair, Awards Chair, Sunshine Chair as well as in her ongoing role as Bench Show Chair. Chris will continue to serve the NPD community in her role as Bench Show Chair planning our upcoming Regional Specialty dog shows at York and Triple Crown as well as the prestigious 2025 Morris & Essex Dog Show. Chris embodies the role of volunteer and myself as well as all of the NewPenDel community wish to thank her for her many years of tireless service!

Additional thanks to John Affel and his team of volunteers on another wonderful Fall Fest! Fall Fest '23 was well attended with many dog and handler teams qualifying for their CGC and Trick Dog titles. Some members got to try their hand at drafting. The games and very popular Newfy obstacle course were a big hit with many members demonstrating their awesome handling skills and athletic abilities.

PRESIDENT’S

Many thanks to our member Naomi Young Meyers – the absolute “Grand Dame” of newfoundlands- for serving as our Guest Judge for the Annual Costume parade and contest. I would like to thank everyone who attended Fall Fest with extra special thanks to all who volunteered their time, talent and energy. Volunteering is the very backbone of this organization and without it, none of our events would be possible.

Moving forward, we’ll have more draft practices to come. Check the website for dates and for on-line event registration.

Additionally, our Annual Newfie Tree Pull at Plow Farms was held on Sat, Dec 9. This is an outstanding event for the entire family, and both pulling and non-pulling teams attended. Plow Farms pulled out all the stops to make this an absolute “do not miss” event and I appreciate everyone who came out to support it.

As the winter holidays rapidly approach, please keep in mind holiday safety for your pets, using caution with food, decorations, and family activities.

Finally, holidays are a time for family and friends, both 2 and 4 legged and we are blessed to share our lives with both. I wish everyone had a Happy Thanksgiving and a very healthy, happy, and safe Holiday Season!!!

Best Regards,
Kat Lynn

NEWFOUNDLAND SPECIALTIES

Written by: Diane Broderick

October is the month many of us look forward to pumpkin spice, colorful trees and the highly anticipated Newfoundland Triple Crown! Six shows in three days hosted by three East Coast Regional Clubs.

Once again Don Sharkey and his crew did a wonderful job with the grounds in Walkersville, MD. Despite four weekends of rain before the show date, the grounds were in excellent condition. Friday was hosted by the New Pen Del Newfoundland Club and began with Deb Thornton judging in the morning, awarding BOB to GCHS CH DREAMHAVEN'S CASCADING WATERFALLS AT OLD BAY and BOS to CH OLD BAY DREAMHAVEN GREAT XPECTATIONS @ACQUA TERRA. In the afternoon James Reynolds presided over the entry and awarded BOB to GCH BOWATER'S FIVE FAMILIES and BOS to GCHS BISS TIMBERKNOLLS KIZZME LIKE YOU MEAN IT.

BOWATER'S AMITY'S PORTRAIT OF BEARFORT

Saturday began with light rain which continued on and off throughout the day. Definitely perfect weather for a newf! The New England Newfoundland Club was the host on Saturday and the morning judge was Dr. Tracy Powell. She chose GCHS CH DREAMHAVEN'S CASCADING WATERFALLS AT OLD BAY as BOB and GCHB DREAMHAVEN'S SUM IT UP WITH OLD BAY as BOS. Milan Lint judged in the afternoon and awarded BOB to GCH BEARFORT AMITY'S READY TO ROLL and BOS to BOWATER'S AMITY'S PORTRAIT OF BEARFORT.

NEW-PEN-DEL

The final two shows on Sunday were hosted by the Colonial Newfoundland Club. The rain had ended and it was a cold crisp day with plenty of sunshine. Judge Janet Cohen chose GCHS CH DREAMHAVEN'S CASCADING WATERFALLS for BOB and GCH BEARFORT AMITY'S READY TO ROLL for BOS. William Matlock judged in the afternoon and awarded BOB to GCHB DREAMHAVEN'S SUM IT UP WITH OLD BAY and BOS to GCH BEAR N MIND'S SOMEBODY TO LOVE!

The best junior handler each day went to AUTUMN SYLVESTER with BOWATER'S PARAMOUNTS IMPRESSIONS. The Grand Finale followed the afternoon show with Lexie Ditlow judging the Best of the Best Junior Handler, which also went to AUTUMN SYLVESTER with BOWATER'S PARAMOUNTS IMPRESSIONS.

The Triple Crown secret judge was Kim Griffith and he judged the Best of The Best of Breed winners. There were four (GCHS CH DREAMHAVEN'S CASCADING WATERFALLS AT OLD BAY, GCH BOWATER'S FIVE FAMILIES, GCH BEARFORT AMITY'S READY TO ROLL, GCHB DREAMHAVEN'S SUM IT UP WITH OLD BAY), and he crowned GCHS CH DREAMHAVEN'S CASCADING WATERFALLS AT OLD BAY CD, RN, CGC, TKA The Triple Crown Winner! She had won Best of Breed three out of the six shows.

Huge congratulations to Tilly and all four of these newfs and their owners and all the other winners Friday through Sunday. Thank you to all the judges for their expertise and taking the time to come judge the Triple Crown Shows. Thank you to everyone who worked so hard to make the three days of regionals a great success. Last but not least, we need to thank the exhibitors, handlers and breeders because without them none of this would be possible. All the winners are listed below.

Unknown Canine Respiratory Illness: What We Know So Far

By Melanie Haid

Published: Dec 11, 2023

<https://www.akc.org/expert-advice/health/unknown-canine-respiratory-illness/>

Outbreaks of an unknown canine respiratory illness have been becoming increasingly prevalent as noted in the media over the past few months in many states across the United States. Especially this time of year, increased respiratory infections are reported among dogs, but this particular one doesn't yet have a name – or a clear cause or treatment.

Owners are reporting symptoms that mainly include prolonged coughing, lethargy, and change in appetite. We spoke to American Kennel Club Chief Veterinarian Dr. Jerry Klein about what we know so far, and what dog owners should do to stay vigilant.

NEW-PEN-DEL

Symptoms to Look Out For

Dogs that are being treated for what is believed to be the same respiratory illness have symptoms that include coughing, significant lethargy, and a change in appetite. “If you see those together, that would warrant seeing a veterinarian,” says Dr. Klein.

“I would advise owners not to panic when their dog coughs, but to contact their veterinarian at the first sign of a cough and see what they recommend and voice their concerns,” Dr. Klein says. “Certainly visit a veterinarian or visit an emergency clinic if a cough is lingering, changes character, and doesn’t seem to go away, or if the dog becomes lethargic or goes off feed.”

These symptoms could also be the cause of other upper respiratory illnesses in dogs, like kennel cough, pneumonia, and canine influenza.

What We Know About This Canine Respiratory Illness

The American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA) first reported cases of this canine respiratory illness in August 2023 in the Portland metro area of Oregon. From mid-August to mid-November, more than 200 cases of this illness were reported. National numbers are not known exactly because states have different reporting requirements, but cases of this canine respiratory illness have been found in Colorado, New Hampshire, and Oregon. Reuters recently reported that potential cases of the canine respiratory illness have been found in California, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Vermont, and Washington.

Dr. Klein says that because the cause is unknown, tracking the illness is also more difficult. “We don’t know if the outbreaks that were experienced in Oregon, for example, are the same cause or causes of the dogs that were studied in New Hampshire.” But it’s not as widespread as people may think. “I don’t think cases are as prevalent all around the country,” he says. Dr. Klein mentions that only two dogs had been brought in at the practice that he works at in Chicago with similar symptoms in the past few weeks, and these cases turned out to be Bordetella. “There may be other areas that may be worse, and certain parts of the country that may be experiencing outbreaks of something.”

In some cases, pneumonia has been reported in relation to this illness. “The dogs that got pneumonia were a little bit different than typical pneumonia cases that vets see,” Dr. Klein says. “But it doesn’t give us an idea of what it is.”

Is Unknown Canine Respiratory Illness Contagious?

Unfortunately, at the moment, there is no certain answer on whether or not this illness is contagious between dogs.

“We can’t be 100% certain on the exact means of contagion, the duration in the environment, and things like that,” Dr. Klein says. “Whether it’s a virus or bacteria, and how exactly it’s spread, we don’t know exactly.” Until researchers know more, Dr. Klein says that vets are taking extra precautions to keep dogs that are showing symptoms isolated.

Dr. Klein does say that it does appear to be contagious dog-to-dog. “We haven’t seen it in people or in cats relating to this, so we think it’s species-specific.” That being said, he emphasizes that it’s still not known how it transfers, or how it can pass between dogs in the same household, kennels, etc.

Looking For Answers Through Research

When a dog is brought in with coughing or similar symptoms, Dr. Klein says that vets have been trying to do diagnostic tests and respiratory panels when they can to rule out other known illnesses. Across the country, researchers are trying to piece together the common symptoms and potential causes to nail down whether this is something that is known, like a variant of kennel cough, a new illness entirely, or possibly multiple causes.

“Just like with humans, we have flu-like symptoms, and we go to urgent care to test for COVID, or Influenza, because these signs mimic each other,” says Dr. Klein. It is also still unknown whether or not this illness is viral or bacterial.

“Unfortunately in this case, the answers haven’t been as instant as anyone would like,” Dr. Klein says. “Veterinarians want to do the best thing for the dog. We want to be able to know what we’re treating and how to treat it properly.”

What Should You Do if You Suspect Your Dog is Sick?

If your dog has a lingering cough, owners should call and consult their vets. There might be procedures already put in place to sanitize rooms and keep offices less full so that the illness isn’t passed to other dogs in waiting rooms. In the case that this illness is contagious, Dr. Klein says it’s important to limit exposure to other dogs. “We don’t want to hurt other dogs if this is very contagious,” he says. “We don’t know how it is, so we have to go along the lines that it could be very contagious.”

In the case where these symptoms do arise, Dr. Klein says to bring your dog to the vet or emergency room. Your veterinarian can help identify and rule out other causes by running diagnostics tests, and treat anything that is identifiable in the meantime, as well as symptomatic care.

If you're worried about the number of cases in your area, Dr. Klein urges owners to consult their veterinary offices to see if there have been cases in the area. The best people who will know of outbreaks around you will be your local vet or emergency veterinarian. "Be aware of what's going on at your local level, and ask if they've seen a recent upsurge of respiratory cases," he said. "If they have then your area may be experiencing an outbreak of something, and you should be especially prudent about how and where you handle your dog among other dogs."

What Can You Do to Help Prevent Your Dog From Getting Sick?

Dr. Klein says that part of the rising levels of panic have to do with the unknown illness being called a "mystery illness." "We don't know if there's a cause or multiple causes leading to the pronouncement of people saying their dogs are sick," he says. "And there's no way of knowing unless proper diagnostic tests are taken and ruled in, or ruled out, to figure out if this is one of those quote unknown cases or one of the many known cases."

But there are still things that you can do to keep your dog safe and stay aware of the situation. "Be preemptive and keep your dog as healthy as possible," he says. "Make sure that your dogs are up to date on all the things that we can vaccinate for that can cause illness."

Dr. Klein also advises trying to maintain your dog's hygiene. Dogs should not be sharing water bowls, and food and water bowls should be frequently disinfected. He also advises washing crates often, and making sure spaces that your dog inhabits have good ventilation. "There's no guarantee, but it's the best thing we can do to try to help minimize possible occurrence of things," Dr. Klein says. "We can't control the world and the environment completely, we can only control what we can." He says to make sure to wash your hands thoroughly and frequently, especially after handling any new or unknown dogs.

As more research is released on this illness, it's important to stay informed, from a local level as well as a national level. "This may be something else, but we want to protect our dogs even in the best case scenario," Dr. Klein says.

The Hefty Price of Seasonal Celebrations

'Tis the season to be merry—and cautious.

Many of our pets take part in the holiday festivities, tagging along to family dinners, neighbors' parties and even opening gifts. Beware of potential hazards: Besides toxic foods, decorations like lighting, ornaments and tinsel—as well as certain plants—can pose a danger to your pets.

Make your holidays fun and festive by keeping these seasonal threats away from pets.

Consider enrolling in pet insurance for your newfs. Review genetic conditions in newfoundlands and make sure the policy you choose, covers them. Following is a comparison of some companies offering pet insurance:

Fall Fun

SAMSON

Samson is a 22-month-old newfie in training to be a therapy dog. His favorite time of year is fall for the crunchy leaves, falling leaves, pumpkins and trick or treaters. He is the ringleader in the neighborhood wrangling all the tiny dogs (chimkin nuggets as he calls them) and making sure the children play safe. He is excellent at his job of supervisor for all things food related. He is the bestest boy. And he LOVES his boy. – The Bush Family

FALKOR

I want to say I really enjoy going to FallFest with my dogs. This year I worked with Diane Stout at the CGC/Trick Dog test site. I had entered Falkor in the CGC test and he passed. He was such a good boy. As we were waiting in between the other fun things people were in I decided to enter Falkor in the Trick Dog Novice Class. He only had to do five tricks and he was GREAT. So, I can say that my beautiful boy now has his first two titles. CGC and TKN. It's a start.

I also want to CONGRATULATE all of the people that signed up for passing the tests.

On October 7th and 8th Sky and I entered Northlands Newfoundland Club's Draft Test. We signed up for DDX. On the 7th it was pouring. Knowing my dog, even though she did what I asked, she didn't pass. Handler error of course. I feel she was such a trouper though because she hates a wet face.

But on October 8th she came through the test with Flying Colors. She PASSED her test. NEW DDX. Also she, with NCA approval, has earned her Working Achievement Title!!

These two make me so PROUD!!!

IN LOVING MEMORY

Fletcher

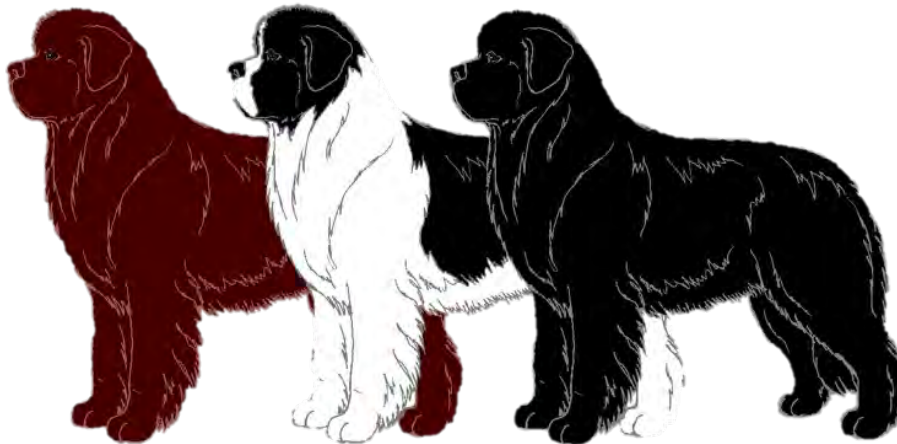

For ten years, Fletcher was our constant companion. Annual vacations at the beach, hikes around the property, camping trips near and far, Friday evenings at a local brewery, nosework competitions with Cathy, rally classes and competitions with Scott — he was always with us. Christmas season was extra special as we traveled to a farm, hitched Fletcher to a cart and went off in search of the perfect tree. Fletcher just seemed to know what to do as he helped haul the tree back from the fields. We'll miss you always, Fletch, but especially this December. - Cathy and Scott Reynolds

Members are storing the club trailer on their property. These members requested the board consider a proposal that their annual membership dues be used as a storage fee. Chris, the president unfortunately could not make it to today's meeting so I'll run the annual meeting on her behalf. First, I'd like to thank John Affel for chairing today's event. And special thanks to all the volunteers that helped to support Fall Fest and all our events throughout the year, either by showing up and volunteering or with your donations.

It's been a busy year for New Pen Del. This year, we initiated the Newfie Strolls and the informal draft practices, which were both very popular. It was really nice to get together with members at stress free events, just spending time together, learning from each other and enjoying time with our dogs. We're continuing the strolls and we'll be posting draft practice dates soon, in preparation for the spring draft test.

We found a great new place in NJ for water training this year, thanks to Donna Campbell and Amy Supko. Colonial Newfoundland Club, also continued to invite NPD members to water train at Codorus State Park in PA in their weekly training sessions and special water training workshop this summer and we're grateful to them for offering another training location to our members. We finished up water season with a wonderful water test. Working events require a lot of volunteers so, I want to express my most sincere gratitude for all who volunteered.

We had a couple of specialties, the Celtic Classic in March and just a couple of weeks ago the Triple Crown, which we hosted with Colonial and New England Clubs. The Triple Crown is a great event to see the top dogs and their breeders in our area. I encourage you to attend next if you can.

Donna Campbell and Karin Bystol spearheaded the 2022 Awards which were presented here today. Thanks to Donna and Karin for all their hard work. It's great to see so many people working with their dogs and getting titles. Remember to submit for an award if you get titles on your dogs. The application is usually included in the January edition of the newsletter.

Our traditional Christmas Tree Pull is planned for December 9th at Plow Farms.. all are welcome.

In today's meeting, we'll also be announcing the new officers, which means this will be Chris's last day as president of New Pen Del. On behalf of Chris and myself, we wish you a healthy and happy holiday season.

We'll now move to the officer's reports. The board and committees have completed their annual reports and copies are available.

The following acceptance message is from the incoming president, Kat Lynn, who could not attend today's meeting:

2023 President's Welcome Message

I would like to thank everyone for attending today's Fall Fest with extra special thanks to all who volunteered their time, talent and energy.

Volunteering is the backbone of any organization, ours included. NPD is, by definition, a social club. Because we are also a dog club, we have the additional responsibility of accepting stewardship of this wonderful breed. From our Charter:

The objectives and aims of the Club shall be to preserve, protect and improve the Newfoundland Breed and to do all possible to bring their natural qualities to perfection; to encourage and promote cooperation, camaraderie, and sportsmanship among the membership and do all things necessary sensible and consistent with achieving these goals.

The best way for us to achieve these goals is through volunteerism.

*This is YOUR Club – I would like to personally encourage every member to identify an area of personal interest (draft, obedience, recreation, nature walks, grooming, group social events etc.) and volunteer!

Reach out and bring your ideas to a Board member! Ideas can be as simple as organizing a nature walk, wine-tasting or an ice-cream social or as involved as bringing in a speaker or hosting an educational seminar. Share art that you have created, items that you would like to see raffled, prizes you would like to win, activities that you would like to participate in, things you would like to learn or maybe even something that you have already learned. Do you have a special skill or talent?? Come forward so it can be shared with the group.

NPD covers a wide and diverse geographic area – let's spread out and host events taking advantage of some of our beautiful natural resources. Let's also involve our communities – do you know of an Easter or Christmas parade we could march in? A train or boat trip we could do? We would love to become part of the fabric of our communities.

Remember – we are a social club (for BOTH people and dogs!!) with many common bonds and interests. For these activities and events to occur we really do require a village. I would like to encourage everyone to embrace being part of our village and making 2024 the best year the Club has ever seen.

2023 ANNUAL REPORTS

Annual Report

DATE: October 28, 2023
TO: New Pen Del Board
FROM: Christine LaMuraglia
SUBJECT: President's Annual Report 2023

New Pen Del co-hosted the Triple Crown held in conjunction with the Colonial and New England Newfoundland Clubs. There were three days of 6 independent specialities culminating with the Best of the Best!!!!!!

We offered Water Training opportunities for dogs at all levels of training. Many thanks to Amy Supko and Donna Campbell for stepping up to organize the training. We hosted our Annual Water Test chaired by Ana Peraza which was, to say the least, a tremendous success.

We introduced Newfie Strolls which were very popular. The most recent was Bears At The Beach that took place in October at Asbury Park. These strolls provide a wonderful opportunity for members to get together.

Donna Campbell and Karin Bristol spearheaded the 2022 awards which are being presented at the annual meeting.

John Affel is chairing the Fun Day and as always it promises to be a great day.

A draft test is scheduled for the Spring of 2024 and our traditional Christmas Tree Pull is scheduled in December. Stay tuned for more details.

I would like to thank the many volunteers it takes make these events happen.

This is my last duty as President and I want to extend Best Wishes for a healthy and happy holiday season.

Respectfully submitted
Christine Lamuraglia

SUBJECT: Working Dog Chair's annual Report

Following is the Annual Report for the tasks completed by the Working Dog Committee for 2023– 2024 Term:

2022-2023 Tasks and Accomplishments:

We had a strong working aspect to our club this year with local events that most could partake in at any level:

We held various walks throughout our area this past year that were popular and helped to bring club members together to talk about everything Newfie and to support each other.

There were also various draft practices held throughout our region that helped support folks new to draft and experienced handlers alike to prepare for upcoming tests, the Tree Pull or just to learn basic drafting skills with their dogs.

We held our water test in September with a new committee that was fairly well attended and everything ran smoothly.

In preparation for this we also brought back Paws N Claws this year for the first time since the pandemic and this event was much anticipated and well attended.

We were able to obtain a new water training site at Camp Linwood McDonald in Sandstone, NJ which has proven to be very successful.

Our tree pull in Pennsylvania at Plow Farms continues to be a fun and welcoming event for club members and the general public.
